

Before We Read

Take a look at your book before you start. What are you thinking about?

I think this book is about...

I already know...

I wonder...

Draw what you think you might see or learn:

A large, empty rectangular box with an orange border, intended for a child to draw their thoughts or predictions.